

This document provides you with key investor information about the Class 'A' Shares of the Stable Return Fund (the "Sub-Fund") a sub-fund of Solutions Capital Management SICAV p.l.c. (the "Company"). It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you to understand the nature and risks of investing in this Sub-Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Class 'A' Retail Shares ISIN Number: MT7000020970 Stable Return Fund, a sub-fund of Solutions Capital Management SICAV p.l.c.

This Sub-Fund is managed by AQA Capital Ltd. (the "Investment Manager") and Solutions Capital Management SIM S.P.A. as Sub-Investment Manager

Objectives and Investment Policy

Investment Objective: The investment objective of the Sub-Fund is to produce stable and consistent returns in the medium to the long term.

Investment Policy: The Sub-Fund shall invest in debt and/or in equity securities which may be listed on an Approved Regulated Market and/or traded over-the-counter. The debt portfolio of the Sub-Fund may consist of government and/or corporate and/or supranational bonds over a broad base of issuers and industries, and/or in bonds determined to be of comparable quality. The Sub-Fund may also invest either directly and/or indirectly, in equities of companies which will mainly be domiciled in the US and/or EU with no particular bias. Such indirect exposures may be achieved through investments in exchange traded and/or over-the-counter derivatives. Exchange traded derivative exposures may include but shall not be limited to futures, put and call options on equity securities, equity indices, credit indices, interest rates or on other eligible underlying in terms of the UCITS Directive. The Sub-Fund may also invest in contingent convertible bonds and/or unrated bonds. The bond portfolio is not expected to have any particular duration.

The Investment Manager considers the following factors in evaluating debt securities for purchase by the Sub-Fund, including:

- Yield to maturity, yield to call (where appropriate), current yield and the price of the security relative to other securities of comparable quality and maturity;
- The difference, or "spread", between the yield of the security and the yield of a comparable government security;
- The size of the issuer, the issuer's sensitivity to economic conditions and trends and the issuer's operating history; and

d. The issuer's financial resources and financial condition, including leverage and cash flow to cover interest expense and principal repayment.

The Sub-Fund is not expected to have any bias towards any specific industrial, geographic or other market sector.

The Sub-Fund may, hedge interest rate, currency and credit risk with a view to stabilize the expected returns of its portfolio and to reduce overall risks through the use of (i) listed and OTC FDIs including bond futures, currency forwards as well as interest rate and/or credit default swaps, and/or (ii) ETFs. The Sub-Fund will bear the associated costs and fees in connection with the use of such instruments. These fees will generally be payable to counterparties in OTC FDIs. Such counterparties are not expected to be related to the Company and/or the Investment Manager. The Company may also enter into foreign exchange linked OTC FDIs with the Custodian. The Sub-Fund shall enter into OTC derivatives with Approved Counterparties. The Sub-Fund is being actively managed.

Income: The Class A Shares (the "Class") is an accumulator class so the income from investments held for the Class will not be paid out as dividends. Instead, income will be re-invested and reflected in the value of the Class.

Buying and Selling Shares: You may buy and sell the Class every business day (i.e. any day that is not a Saturday or a Sunday and not a public or bank holiday in Malta).

Currency: The Class in the Sub-Fund is denominated in EUR.

Recommendation: This Sub-Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw money within 1 year.

Risk and Reward Profile

The above risk and reward indicator rates this Sub-Fund as category 3 meaning that it offers a moderate risk of making a loss but also a moderate chance of making substantial gains. Even the lowest category on the indicator does not mean risk free. The Sub-Fund's rating reflects the nature of its investments and the corresponding risks to which it is exposed that is based on simulated data and therefore not a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Sub-

Operational Risk – If a custodian or sub-custodian appointed by or on behalf of the Sub-Fund were to become insolvent, or act negligently or fraudulently this could lead to the substantial loss of securities held in custody for the Sub-Fund.

Exchange Rate Risk – The Sub-Fund may invest in assets denominated in currencies other than Euro, thereby exposing the Sub-Fund to fluctuations in exchange rates.

Use of FDIs – It is anticipated that the Sub-Fund will hold FDIs for the purpose of hedging interest rate, currency and credit risk. FDIs also involve risks which are different from, and in certain cases, greater than, the risk presented by more traditional investments.

Credit Risk - money market instruments, bonds or other debt

Fund. The risk and reward profile of the Sub-Fund is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time. These risk factors, which include below, may affect the value of the Sub-Fund's investments / expose the Sub-Fund to losses:

instruments held for a fund involve credit risk represented by the possibility of default by the issuer. Debt instruments which are subordinated and/or have a lower credit rating are generally considered to have a higher credit risk and a greater possibility of default than more highly rated and/or unsubordinated securities.

More information regarding risks may be found in the "Risk Factors" section in the Company's Prospectus. The "Practical Information" below explains how you may obtain a free copy of the Prospectus and other useful information.
